Phillips' Class News February 3, 2011

Reading: Please have your student read 20 minutes nightly and record the title in their agendas. Students will conclude working with the elements of poetry.

Writing: Students will continue persuasive pieces by writing speeches. Please ask your child to show you our new method of grammar practice.

Math: Check your student's agenda nightly for math homework now that we are switching for math. We will begin our unit on fractions.

Social Studies: Students will begin the study of the American Revolution.

Science: Students will continue the study of light and sound.
